

British Royal Wedding 2011

The wedding of the decade is rapidly approaching. The British Royal Wedding between Prince William and Kate Middleton edges closer day by day. The nation and the world wait with baited breath as to what the bride will wear as she walks down the aisle of Westminster Abbey in London. The capital is expected to be packed with day trippers eager to see the royal couple tie the knot on Friday April 29th 2011. The Prime Minister David Cameron has given the nation a day off so we can all watch the ceremony on the box. Great! Many who can't get to London will be watching the ceremony at home with their families in their living rooms. Others will watch the ceremony on their computers. Many will be joining their friends down the pub to watch it. The most exciting place to see it will be in London itself as one of the thousands of spectators in the Mall. Everyone will want to get a glimpse of the royal couple as they troop past in the royal carriage on their way to Buckingham Palace after the ceremony. What a day it will be. Let's hope we don't get any April showers!

Prince William has spoken about wedding nerves. Will his brother Prince Harry mess up the best man's speech afterwards? His grandmother The Queen no doubt is looking forward to the occasion, as is his father Prince Charles. His mother Princess Diana would have been proud of him. Half the world is expected to be watching the event. It could be the biggest society event this decade! Hotels in London are expected to be full. 10,000 campers are being allowed to camp on Clapham Common in London. Big screens will be set up so campers can watch the action. Around the world people will be joining in the celebrations. In New York people are organising a right old knees up including a big party, bunting, a royal tea etc... In London you'll be able to buy a royal mug, T-shirt, china tea set, cake, etc... In fact, souvenir sellers are expected to make a killing. Certainly the British tourism industry should do very well out of it. London is expecting a huge influx of tourists during royal wedding week. TV channels will have a field day interviewing Uncle Tom Cobly and all. Members of the armed forces will line the route from Westminster Abbey to Buckingham Palace. After the wedding a fly-past involving a Battle of Britain memorial flight and two tornados will fly over Buckingham Palace. The Royal Wedding will be a day to remember.

Category: Royal Wedding / Prince William / Kate Middleton

Level: Intermediate / Upper intermediate

This ESL lesson is the copyright of www.newsflashenglish.com

EXERCISES

1. British Royal Wedding 2011: Think of three things you know about the British Royal Wedding 2011. Go round the room swapping details with others.

2. Dictation: The teacher will read four to six lines of the article slowly and clearly. Students will write down what they hear. The teacher will repeat the passage slowly again. Self-correct your work from page one - filling in spaces and correcting mistakes. Be honest with yourself on the number of errors. Advise the teacher of your total number of errors. Less than five is very good. Ten is acceptable. Any more is room for improvement! More than twenty - you need to do some work!

3. Reading: The students should now read the article aloud, swapping readers every paragraph.

4. Vocabulary: Students should now look through the article and underline any vocabulary they do not know. Look in dictionaries. Discuss and help each other out. The teacher will go through and explain any unknown words or phrases.

5. The article: Students should look through the article with the teacher.

- a) What is the article about?
- b) What do you think about the article?

6. Let's think! In pairs think of five things you know about Prince William. Then add five things about his bride Kate Middleton. Write them below. Discuss together.

Prince William	Kate Middleton
1	1
2	2
3	3
4	4
5	5

The teacher will choose some pairs to discuss their findings in front of the class.

7. Let's think! You have got an invitation to the wedding at Westminster Abbey! Think of five things you might need to do before you go. Then think of five things you might see during the wedding ceremony. Finally, add five things you might see after the wedding in the Mall. Write them below. Discuss together.

Preparation for big day	In Westminster Abbey	In the Mall
1	1	1
2	2	2
3	3	3
4	4	4
5	5	5

The teacher will choose some pairs to discuss their findings in front of the class.

British Royal Wedding 2011 – 15th April 2011

8. Let's think! In pairs. On the board write as many words as you can to do with the 'Royal Wedding'. One-two minutes. Compare with other teams. Using your words compile a short dialogue together.

9. Let's roleplay: Radio London: In pairs/groups. One of you is the interviewer. The others are one of the following people. You are in the Radio London studio in London. Today's interview is about the British Royal Wedding 2011.

1	A hotel manager in London	3	A tourist
2	A taxi driver	4	A souvenir seller in the Mall

The teacher will choose some pairs to roleplay their interview in front of the class.

10. Let's roleplay 2: Radio London: In pairs/groups. One of you is the interviewer. The others are one of the following people. You are in the Radio London studio in London. Today's interview is about the British Royal Wedding 2011.

1	Prince William	2	Kate Middleton
---	----------------	---	----------------

11. Let's do 'The Article Quiz': Have the students quiz each other in pairs. They score a point for each correct answer and half a point each time they have to look at the article for help. See who can get the highest score!

Student A

- 1) What date is the royal wedding?
- 2) Who is getting married?
- 3) Where is the wedding taking place?
- 4) Who will be watching the wedding?
- 5) What is happening in New York?

Student B

- 1) Name the British Prime Minister.
- 2) What has the Prime minister given the nation?
- 3) Who will have a field day?
- 4) Who is Uncle Tom Cobly?
- 5) Who will make a killing?

12. Let's think! Think of three royal souvenirs then add three things you might see in London on the big day. Write them below. Discuss together with your partner.

Royal souvenirs	What you might see in London on the day
1	1
2	2
3	3

The teacher will choose some pairs to discuss their findings in front of the class.

13. Let's write an e-mail: Write and send a 200 word e-mail to your teacher about: The British Royal Wedding 2011. Your e-mail can be read out in class.

14. Sentence starters: Finish these sentence starters. Correct your mistakes. Compare what other people have written.

- a) Prince William _____
- b) The bride _____

DISCUSSION

Student A questions

- 1) Do the British royals approve of the match?
- 2) What will the wedding dress look like?
- 3) Is Kate sure she wants to go through with this?
- 4) Who will little brother Harry bring along as a guest?
- 5) What time will the wedding be on TV?
- 6) Why did the royal couple choose April 29th as their wedding day?
- 7) Do you know anyone from your country who is going to London to see the royal wedding?
- 8) What will you be doing on the big day?
- 9) Will you be going to any royal wedding celebration parties?
- 10) Did you like this discussion?

Student B questions

- 1) Where will the royal couple go on their honeymoon?
- 2) What do you think Kate will dread about becoming one of the royal family?
- 3) Have you got an invitation to the wedding?
- 4) Will you be going to London to see the royal wedding?
- 5) Will you be buying a new hat for the royal wedding?
- 6) What is the fascination about the royal wedding?
- 7) One in three people in the UK will be watching the royal wedding on TV. Will you?
- 8) What do we know about the ring?
- 9) What royal title could Kate have?
- 10) Why was the engagement announced on Twitter?

SPEAKING

Let's discuss! The British Royal Wedding 2011

Allow 10-15 minutes – As a class / small groups / pairs / 1 to 1

20 things about the royal wedding
--

The teacher can moderate the session.

GAP FILL: READING:

Put the words into the gaps in the text.

British Royal Wedding 2011

The (1)_____ of the decade is rapidly approaching. The British (2)_____ Wedding between Prince William and Kate Middleton edges closer day by day. The nation and the world wait with baited breath as to what the (3)_____ will wear as she walks down the (4)_____ of Westminster Abbey in London. The capital is expected to be packed with day trippers (5)_____ to see the royal couple tie the knot on Friday April 29th 2011. The Prime Minister David Cameron has given the nation a day off so we can all watch the ceremony on the box. Great! Many who can't get to London will be watching the ceremony at home with their families in their living rooms. Others will watch the (6)_____ on their computers. Many will be joining their friends down the pub to watch it. The most exciting place to see it will be in London itself as one of the thousands of spectators in the Mall. Everyone will want to get a glimpse of the royal (7)_____ as they troop past in the royal (8)_____ on their way to Buckingham Palace after the ceremony. What a day it will be. Let's hope we don't get any April showers!

aisle

couple eager ceremony

carriage

royal bride

wedding

Prince William has spoken about wedding (1)_____. Will his brother Prince Harry mess up the best man's speech afterwards? His grandmother The Queen no doubt is looking forward to the occasion, as is his father Prince Charles. His mother Princess Diana would have been proud of him. Half the world is expected to be watching the (2)_____. It could be the biggest society event this decade! Hotels in London are expected to be full. 10,000 campers are being allowed to camp on Clapham Common in London. Big screens will be set up so (3)_____ can watch the action. Around the world people will be joining in the (4)_____. In New York people are organising a right old knees up including a big party, (5)_____, a royal tea etc... In London you'll be able to buy a royal (6)_____, T-shirt, china tea set, cake, etc... In fact, (7)_____ sellers are expected to make a killing. Certainly the British tourism industry should do very well out of it. London is expecting a huge (8)_____ of tourists during royal wedding week.

nerves

event

mug

influx celebrations campers

souvenir bunting

GAP FILL: LISTENING

Listen and fill in the spaces.

British Royal Wedding 2011

The _____ is rapidly approaching. The _____ between Prince William and Kate Middleton edges closer day by day. The nation and the world wait with baited breath as to what the bride will wear as she walks down the aisle of Westminster Abbey in London. The capital is expected to be packed _____ eager to see the royal couple tie the knot on Friday April 29th 2011. The Prime Minister David Cameron has given _____ so we can all watch the ceremony on the box. Great! Many who can't get to London will be watching the ceremony at home with their families in their living rooms. Others will watch the ceremony on their computers. Many will be joining their friends down the pub to watch it. The _____ to see it will be in London itself as one of the thousands of spectators in the Mall. Everyone will want to get a glimpse of the royal couple as they troop past in the royal carriage on their way to Buckingham Palace after the ceremony. What a day it will be. Let's hope we don't _____!

Prince William has spoken about wedding nerves. Will his brother Prince Harry mess up _____ afterwards? His grandmother The Queen no doubt is looking forward to the occasion, as is his father Prince Charles. His mother _____ have been proud of him. Half the world is expected to be watching the event. It could be the biggest society event this decade! Hotels in London are expected to be full. 10,000 campers are being allowed to camp on _____ London. Big screens will be set up so campers can watch the action. Around the world people will be joining in the celebrations. In _____ organising a right old knees up including a big party, bunting, a royal tea etc... In London you'll be able _____, T-shirt, china tea set, cake, etc... In fact, souvenir sellers are expected to make a killing. Certainly the _____ should do very well out of it. London is expecting a huge influx of tourists during royal wedding week.

GRAMMAR

Put the words into the gaps in the text.

British Royal Wedding 2011

The wedding of the decade is rapidly approaching. The British Royal Wedding between Prince William and Kate Middleton edges closer day by day. The nation and the world wait (1)___ baited breath as to what the bride will wear as (2)___ walks down the aisle of Westminster Abbey in London. The capital is expected to be packed with day trippers eager to see the royal couple tie the knot on Friday April 29th 2011. The Prime Minister David Cameron has given the nation a day off so we can all watch the ceremony on the box. Great! Many (3)___ can't get to London will be watching the ceremony at home with their families in their living rooms. Others will watch the ceremony on their computers. (4)___ will be joining (5)___ friends down the pub to watch it. The most exciting place to see it will be in London itself as one of the thousands of spectators in the Mall. Everyone will want to get a glimpse of the royal couple as (6)___ troop past in the royal carriage on their way to Buckingham Palace after the ceremony. (7)___ a day it will be. Let's hope we don't get (8)___ April showers!

any who she many their they with what

Prince William has spoken about wedding nerves. Will his brother Prince Harry mess up the best man's speech afterwards? His grandmother The Queen no doubt is looking forward to the occasion, as is his father Prince Charles. (3)___ mother Princess Diana (1)___ have been proud of him. Half the world is expected to be watching the event. It could be the biggest society event this decade! Hotels (7)___ London are expected to be full. 10,000 campers are being allowed to camp on Clapham Common in London. Big screens will be set up (8)___ campers (2)___ watch the action. Around the world people will be joining in the celebrations. In New York people are organising a right old knees up including a big party, bunting, a royal tea etc... In London (5)___'ll be able to buy a royal mug, T-shirt, china tea set, cake, etc... In fact, souvenir sellers are expecting to make a killing. Certainly (4)___ British tourism industry should do very well out of it. London is expected (6)___ huge influx of tourists during royal wedding week.

a

in so the

you his can would

SPELLING TEST

The teacher will ask the class individually to spell the following words that are in the article. Afterwards, check your answers with your teacher, using the following ratings: Pass = 12, Good = 15, Very good = 18, Excellent = 20

1	carriage	11	grandmother
2	ceremony	12	showers
3	decade	13	spectators
4	everyone	14	memorial
5	glimpse	15	families
6	occasion	16	wedding
7	probably	17	celebrations
8	souvenir	18	thousands
9	afterwards	19	certainly
10	influx	20	rapidly

LINKS

<http://www.dailymail.co.uk/home/search.html?searchPhrase=royal+wedding+2011>
<http://www.telegraph.co.uk/news/uknews/royal-wedding/>
<http://www.bbc.co.uk/news/uk-11767495>
<http://edition.cnn.com/SPECIALS/2011/royal.wedding/>
<http://news.sky.com/skynews/Royal-Wedding>

ANSWERS

GAP FILL: British Royal Wedding 2011: The wedding of the decade is rapidly approaching. The British Royal Wedding between Prince William and Kate Middleton edges closer day by day. The nation and the world wait with baited breath as to what the bride will wear as she walks down the aisle of Westminster Abbey in London. The capital is expected to be packed with day trippers eager to see the royal couple tie the knot on Friday April 29th 2011. The Prime Minister David Cameron has given the nation a day off so we can all watch the ceremony on the box. Great! Many who can't get to London will be watching the ceremony at home with their families in their living rooms. Others will watch the ceremony on their computers. Many will be joining their friends down the pub to watch it. The most exciting place to see it will be in London itself as one of the thousands of spectators in the Mall. Everyone will want to get a glimpse of the royal couple as they troop past in the royal carriage on their way to Buckingham Palace after the ceremony. What a day it will be. Let's hope we don't get any April showers!

Prince William has spoken about wedding nerves. Will his brother Prince Harry mess up the best man's speech afterwards? His grandmother The Queen no doubt is looking forward to the occasion, as is his father Prince Charles. His mother Princess Diana would have been proud of him. Half the world is expected to be watching the event. It could be the biggest society event this decade! Hotels in London are expected to be full. 10,000 campers are being allowed to camp on Clapham Common in London. Big screens will be set up so campers can watch the action. Around the world people will be joining in the celebrations. In New York people are organising a right old knees up including a big party, bunting, a royal tea etc... In London you'll be able to buy a royal mug, T-shirt, china tea set, cake, etc... In fact, souvenir sellers are expected to make a killing. Certainly the British tourism industry should do very well out of it. London is expecting a huge influx of tourists during royal wedding week.

(V2)

www.newsflashenglish.com

Created by David Robinson. This ESL lesson is the copyright of www.newsflashenglish.com