

ESL ENGLISH LESSON (60-120 mins) – 5th June 2012

Euro 2012

Today, let's talk about the European Football Championship that is taking place this year in Poland and Ukraine. Commonly known as Euro 2012 the championship will bring the best European teams together for what, no doubt, will be another exciting tournament. The 2012 UEFA European Football Championship will be the 14th Championship for national European football teams organised by UEFA. This year's tournament will be between the 8th June and the 1st July. It is the first time either country has hosted the event. The tournament will be between the final 16 nations. The winner of the tournament gains automatic entry into the 2013 FIFA Confederations Cup hosted by Brazil. Host cities in Poland for Euro 2012 are: Warsaw, Gdansk, Wroclaw and Poznan. In Ukraine, the host cities are: Kiev, Lvov, Donetsk and Kharkov. The semi finals will take place in Donetsk and Warsaw. The final will take place at the Olympic Stadium (Capacity 60,000) in Kiev.

The tournament will be one of the biggest events of the year but there are fears it could be hit by racism and violence. Thousands of fans will be heading to Poland and Ukraine where racism at matches sometimes happens during league matches. UEFA says it is working hard to make sure the tournament is a success. Paul Elliott, Kick it Out Ambassador said recently, "Should there be any racism the referee has the power to stop the game, speak to the stadium announcer, to do everything possible until the situation is resolved". It will be interesting to see if European leaders will boycott the tournament, especially the final, in protest at the detention of former Ukrainian Prime Minister Yulia Tymoshenko, who has been detained by her former rival and President Viktor Yanukovich. The former Prime Minister was allegedly beaten up in jail by her guards. Ukrainian Foreign Affairs Ministry has been open in its condemnation of Germany's Angela Merkel boycotting the tournament in protest. He said, "Euro is sport, not politics, it's a football championship, not a political summit."

Meanwhile England's new boss Roy Hodgson has named his 23-man Euro 2012 squad. England will play France three days after the opening match. England supporters are desperately hoping the England squad might get further than the quarter finals! Keep your fingers crossed.

EXERCISES

1. Euro 2012: Think of three things you know about Euro 2012. Go round the room swapping details with others.

2. Dictation: The teacher will read four to six lines of the article slowly and clearly. Students will write down what they hear. The teacher will repeat the passage slowly again. Self-correct your work from page one - filling in spaces and correcting mistakes. Be honest with yourself on the number of errors. Advise the teacher of your total number of errors. Less than five is very good. Ten is acceptable. Any more is room for improvement! More than twenty - you need to do some work!

3. Reading: The students should now read the article aloud, swapping readers every paragraph.

4. Vocabulary: Students should now look through the article and underline any vocabulary they do not know. Look in dictionaries. Discuss and help each other out. The teacher will go through and explain any unknown words or phrases.

5. The article: Students should look through the article with the teacher.

- a) What is the article about?
- b) What do you think about the article?

6. Euro 2012: In pairs think of five things about the tournament from the article. Then add five other Euro 2012 news related topics. Write them below. Discuss together.

From the article	Other Euro 2012 topics
1	1
2	2
3	3
4	4

The teacher will choose some pairs to discuss their findings in front of the class.

7. Let's roleplay 1: Discussion FM: In pairs/groups. One of you is the interviewer. The others are one of the following people. You are in the Discussion FM radio studio. Today's interview is about: Euro 2012.

1	A football supporter going to Kiev
2	A national team coach
3	A spokesperson from UEFA Euro 2012 committee
4	A top European politician

The teacher will choose some pairs to roleplay their interview in front of the class.

8. Let's think! In pairs. On the board write as many words as you can to do with Euro 2012. One-two minutes. Compare with other teams. Using your words compile a short dialogue together.

Euro 2012 – 5th June 2012

9. Let's roleplay 2: In pairs. You are in a pub watching Euro 2012. Start a conversation about: 'Euro 2012'. 5-minutes.

10. Poland/Ukraine: In pairs, think of five things you know about Poland. Then add five things you know about Ukraine. Discuss together.
