The 4 page 60 minute ESL British English lesson – 10/04/13

Margaret Thatcher dies

Recently Britain lost one of its most famous Prime Ministers. Baroness Thatcher, who was Britain's first female Prime Minister died "peacefully" at the age of 87 following a stroke. Baroness Thatcher will have a full ceremonial funeral with military honours at St Paul's Cathedral in London.

Current Prime Minister David Cameron praised Baroness Thatcher saying she was "the greatest peacetime Prime Minister. She was a great leader, a great Briton". He added, "She didn't just lead our country, she saved our country."

Tributes from other world leaders past and present also poured in; including US President Barack Obama - who said the world had "lost one of the great champions of freedom and liberty and that America has lost a true friend."

Lady Thatcher was Prime Minister in Britain from 1979 to 1990. During her time in office she privatised several State-owned industries. She saw off the miners strike of 1984-85 and she was at No 10 when Argentina invaded the Falkland Islands in 1982.

In 1984, Margaret Thatcher survived an assassination attempt by the IRA when they bombed the Grand Hotel in Brighton during the Conservative party's annual conference. She was also one of the key movers behind the fall of communism in Eastern Europe.

During her later years in office she became increasingly associated with Euroscepticism. Lady Thatcher stood down in 1990 following a leadership contest in the Conservative party.

Love her or hate her she was a remarkable woman. 'The Iron Lady' will be remembered for many years to come.
