The EU Migrant Crisis gets worse

The EU migrant crisis is getting worse. It is out of control. The Schengen Zone is collapsing. Germany has now reinstated its borders with Austria. Slovakia and Austria have also reintroduced border controls with Hungary.

Why? Because in the last few months tens of thousands of migrants from Syria, Afghanistan and parts of Africa have been crossing Europe to get to Germany.

The Hungarians have now built a 180km long 4m (13ft) high fence along their southern border with Serbia to stop them. At midnight, on the orders of its prime minister Victor Orbán, Hungary sealed its southern border with Serbia.

The refugees will now have to enter the EU via Romania or Croatia. Any migrant entering Hungary illegally and without the right papers will be locked up for three years.

German Chancellor Mrs Merkel has opened the floodgates to migrants. Eastern European countries do not want to take them. They do not want Muslims in their country. Nor do they want their mosques. East European countries see their own way of life under threat thanks to the EU President Mr Juncker, Mr Holland and Mrs Merkel.

It was the USA, Britain and France who initially caused the bombing of the Middle East with their arms sales and disastrous foreign policies of regime change in Libya and Iraq. China, Germany and Russia have also sold the Middle Eastern countries arms; so are equally to blame for the crisis. Remember it’s all about oil and arms sales!

Leader of the UK Independence Party (UKIP) Nigel Farage: “I said a few months ago the EU has opened the doors to a migration exodus of biblical proportions and indeed that is what we’re beginning to see.”
